Suzanne LaBerge is a partner at Gruskin & LaBerge, PA. She is an Elder Law attorney dedicated to helping elders with the complex problems facing them today. Ms. LaBerge represents clients in matters relating to Medicare and Medicaid; wills, trusts and probate; advance directives; asset protection; and planning for disability.

Ms. LaBerge graduated from the University of Mississippi and Stetson University College of Law. She has had many years of courtroom experience litigating real property, probate and family law matters. Her focus now is on the needs of elderly persons and their families. She is a member of the National Academy of Elder Law Attorneys (NAELA) and the Association of Florida Elder Law Attorneys (AFELA). She has served on the Board of Directors for the Guardian Association of Pinellas County.
